ARCTIC WEEK 2019

An International & Transdisciplinary Conference Bridging Indigenous and Scientific Knowledge

ARCTIC WEEK 2019

WE ARE HAPPY TO WELCOME YOU TO THE SECOND ARCTIC WEEK

Since 2018, the Research Center for the Cultures Environment Arctic Representation Climates (CEARC), the OVSQ, and the University of Saint-Quentin en Yvelines has been organising this one-week international conference to offer an interdisciplinary overview of environmental and social challenges in the Arctic. This conference gathers scientific and traditional knowledge and provides a unique interchange between environmental and social scientists, indigenous peoples and students.

This year, we are proud to develop Arctic Week with the support of the French Ambassador for the Arctic and Antarctic Poles, Ségolène Royal at the Ministry of Europe and Foreign Affairs.

We are honored to receive you at the second Arctic Week. Thank you for sharing your experiences and being involved in this conference.

Language

In Paris, people speak French language. Concerning the English, they have a little more difficulties. However Parisian students have a better knowledge of English language and could help you if you are in need.

Currency

In France, the official currency is EUROS (€). You can get money from an ATM or pay by card. Please note that the credit card could be used almost everywhere, but be aware in some taxis or small shops, you could only pay by cash. It is good to have 10-20 € in cash with you, just in case.

Public Transport

In Paris, the public transport is managed by RATP and SNCF. From the 5th of December, RATP and SNCF took part in the national strike. The public transport is very affected and a lot of buses/metros/RER could be canceled! If you can, we advise you to choose to travel by foot.

Ticket Price:

- One way ticket t+ (for Metro, Bus, Tram, RER): 1,90€.
- From the airport CDG to City center: 10,30€.

At the metro station you could also buy a ticket for several days/weeks. You can buy tickets in any metro station. You also have the possibility to buy (only) BUS TICKET from the driver for the price of 2€.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION (2/2)

Telephone

In France, numbers have 10 digits and begin with 01 (for the Paris region). Mobile numbers start with 06 or 07.

If you want to call from abroad (or from a non French phone) to a French number: Before putting the French number you should compose the international code 00 followed by 33 (for France), then you can put the number without the first 0!

Exemple: You want to call 01 23 45 67 89 => 00 33 1 23 45 67 89.

Internet
